CERTIFICATE IV IN AGEING SUPPORT

About this Course:

This qualification is designed for support workers in aged care, preparing them for roles in residential, home, or community settings. It focuses on specialised tasks such as developing and reviewing individualised service plans, ensuring high-quality care, and managing work within organisational guidelines. The course also includes leadership training, enabling workers to oversee their own tasks and, occasionally, guide others within set parameters. Practical placements are integral, offering hands-on experience and preparing graduates for the growing demands of the aged care sector.

What You'll Learn

- Advocate for clients' rights in aged care.
- Empower older adults for independence and wellbeing.
- Coordinate services for those at risk or with dementia.
- Develop and review personalised service plans.
- Support relationships with carers and families.
- Apply palliative care and build partnerships.

Here's what our Certificate IV in Ageing Support students think

See why more than 20,000 students have chosen Charlton Brown

Zhang Jing

An effective teacher is one who directs, facilitates and manages the students' learning process. Da Teng is one of them. I like his flexible teaching style, positive belief in the ability to solve translating problems, willingness and motivation to listen and caring for students.

Rob Manz

I'm very happy with the service and education Charlton Brown provided! Alvin's teaching was fun, creative and entertaining. He likes to talk about trending topics in the class. He's also fast at answering any questions.
